Feedback Request from the Parish Council:

Parish Council was asked to consider whether St Ambrose would like to start its own chapter of the Knights of Columbus. If you have an opinion about this please talk to or email one of your Parish Council members. Here are some things to consider:

- We already have an active men's group and a men's prayer group. How would this effect these functioning groups?
- Some parishioners interested in the K of C are already members in Churchtown and Parkersburg. Would they want to leave groups they are familiar with already?
- In what way would this add to or detract from the mission and ministry of the parish?
